JEWISH ORPHANS. Exhibition at the Jewish Orphan Asylum at

CLEVELAND, O., July 12.—The second annual exhibition of the Jewish Orphan Asylum, at Cleveland, took place to-day. There were present a large number of friends of the institution from this city and abroad. The school room in the west end of the building was neatly and tastefully decorated with wreaths of bouquets and evergreens, presenting a very attractive appearance. The children, of which there are 75 boys and 52 girls, ranging in age from five to thirteen years, made a very creditable appearance. The examinations were conducted by the teachers, occupying both forenoon and afternoon, when the series of price and the conducted of the conducted by the teachers, occupying hoth forenoon and afternoon, the conducted of the conducted by the teachers, occupying hoth forenoon and afternoon, the conducted of the conducted by the teachers, occupying hoth forenoon and afternoon, the conducted by the teachers, occupying hoth forenoon and afternoon, the conducted of the conducted of the conducted by the teachers, occupying hoth forenoon and afternoon, the conducted of the conducted by the teachers, occupying hoth forenoon and afternoon, the conducted of pying both forencon and afternoon, pying both forencon and alternoon, and embraced various branches of study in three languages, English, German and Hebrew, all of which are thoroughly taught. The promptness and accuracy of the children in these languages seems little less than marvelous, reflecting the highest credit upon them and their instructions. The English branches were an tors.
